After having gone from the house but a abort c stance. Shideler, was shorth the back and after angering near y two cays c. oc. -t oeing ascertained that the shoot by had unquestionably been done by Ward, the woman's husband, the officers searched the house, but the man was not to be found. Sher # Dana, who was then marshal of Colorado Springs, the same night detected and arrested. Ward as he was coming in from the brush to take a horse from to barn with which to make his escape. In the meant me the news of the shooting had. Mass A. e. Phakerton, Cheago; Mr. and Mrs. or perectag award and a growe gathered to ynch Ward. Shreler was we known and a DODU AT YOURS I'VE OW, WILE WARE BAC AD unsavory reputation and had frequenty boaster of having in ec is man in southwestern Kansas. Comparing in a record with that of Solde er the drowd were determined to make a m pay are pensitylof a s cr.me but the officers very clever y evaced them and p acec. Lae prisoner within the stone wa 3 of the county 's . On Apr _ 22c of the same year Ware, who had been incided by the grand jury, was arra gned before a nege Aowen of the Fourth ac cial clause, now J. S. senalor. The defendant was given a a rand mparta fra. being prosecuted by Tay or, Caste Rock, Coo; & Amnett, C. W. Hurrs and defended by General Dan-Grand Rapids, Men; Miss F. Torrey, Miss F. forth. As a result Ward was committed to in als sentence adde Bowen said that the verd of was fully sustained by the evidence. At the same time he concemned the reckless and useless resort to trearms, out under the recommendation of mercy by the jury and agent: the considerationof aggravating discumstances he would make the sentence two years.

Canon C ty for a term of two years.

Ward served out his sensence, and it was cold incess a and sy planew: the become so, however, for no sooner had he been released than he went to Leadyure, where he was journed by the disreputable wife who had placed him behind the hars. Joanna Taber, to E ... Tabert, swigt Leadville was in those days very prosperous The wife opened a cance has and the flusband lived of the prois. Le vecto era y, mace laings vely with his s xshocter and occupied a cell in the city at a most week y. When nextheard of Ward was ast summer in North Park, where he and his wife were zeening a sort of a tayern where iquors were a sposed of without a cense, and the hesbane and a few pas were occasionally rating carte ranches. Here the Cepraved w fe by undue familiarity with a young cowboy aroused the reloffice husband. The resuit was he was alled to co c blook one cay we son he way to George own. A report of the shooting appeared in the GAZETTE a. the time, and so indignant were the residents of that ocality in consequence that Ward was ucky n escaping the country a 1ve.

From North Park we "o ow this cespeado's a story to Gunn son county where it is reported that he with his ready shooter disposed of his man, but we canno, confirm body was found on an unfrequented road readog to Green river which was scent het as that o', oe Ward.
